There is a line that goes through day to day. An invisible thread that holds the daily (im)balance.

The appearance of a clown into the scene can make that thread change, turn, tangle, loosen and tighten until shears, leaving in the air an emptiness that is filled with the laughs of whom witnessed that unique moment.

Proposal

Jeruncio, with his humor and charm, invites us into his world. He creates a quick but warm connection, where for a moment everyone feels familiar, sharing laughter and wonder.

Play becomes a shared reality—fun challenges, a rope, teamwork to find balance, and a lively basketball game. Through it all, there's just one goal: to have fun and amaze.

Biography

Jeremías Terrible was born in Buenos Aires. In 2012, he began training as a juggler, unicyclist, and stilt walker.

A trip through Latin America brought him to his first audiences. Since then, he has explored clowning through workshops, seminars, and international circus conventions, learning from teachers from all over the world.

Today, he works as an actor, host, and clown in theaters, cultural centers, and conventions. He performs different solo shows at festivals around the world and entertains at private events for both children and adults. This young artist continues to grow and discover his clown on stages of all kinds.
